From the Pastor's Study

Greetings Members and Friends,

I once attended worship at the Harvard University chapel in early November. I went to hear a marvelous preacher named Peter Gomes. In his opening remarks he mentioned being in a department store and hearing Christmas music. He said, "I heard Christmas music playing and I knew it could only mean one thing. Thanksgiving is just around the corner."

As I write this message, it is just prior to Thanksgiving and it seems like a strange time to be thinking about Christmas but the season of Advent begins on December 2. How are you entering into Advent this year? Are you full of joy? Are you sad or worried about the state of the world or some event in your life? Are you grieving an important loss? Perhaps you bring to Advent a combination of feelings and thoughts.

As you enter into Advent; I hope you will take advantage of our many Advent offerings. Participate in one of our service activities, come to a deacon led prayer service, engage in Bible study, or enjoy Advent Musical Moments during the week. Whatever you choose, it is sure to enhance your Advent season. Please read through this newsletter to see all of the offerings on God's Acre this Advent season.

There is a past, present, and future element of Advent. We relive ancient Israel's hope of a savior, celebrate God's goodness in our time, and look to the future fulfillment of God's reign of peace. The following comes from the book we are using at the Sunday morning 9:00am study, The First Christmas: What the Gospels Really Teach about Jesus' Birth by Marcus Borg & John Crossan:

Advent as a reliving in the present of Ancient Israel's hope and yearning is expressed in an Advent hymn more than a thousand years old. Its first verse is very familiar:

*O come, O come, Emmanuel,
And ransom captive Israel,
that mourns in lonely exile here,
until the Son of God appear.*

The language is evocative and powerful. We are Israel – in exile, captive, mourning, lonely, longing. Israel's longing is an epiphany of human longing.

The seventh verse explicitly universalizes the yearning: it is the desire of nations:

Salvation Army Bell Ringing at Walter Stewart's: Help Our Nearest Neighbors

Hourly time slots:

- Fridays 3:00–6:00pm
- Saturdays 9:00am–4:00pm on December 7, 8, 14, 15, 21 & 22.

Those in our community struggling with financial difficulties, addiction, mental health issues, and all life stressors turn to our New Canaan Health and Human Services for help. Especially at Christmastime, families in need are stretched. The funds we raise by Bell Ringing at Walter Stewart's go towards helping these very local neighbors, through Health and Human Services, primarily with heat and electricity aid in winter months. This is not only a wonderful way to help those in need but a great way for children to actively participate in and learn about caring for others through the gift of our time.

Advent Book Study

The First Christmas: What the Gospels Really Teach About Jesus' Birth by Marcus J. Borg and John Dominic Crossan

The study will meet December 2, 9, 16, 23 from 9:00-9:45am in the Parlor and be led by Eric.

In The First Christmas, two Jesus scholars explore the beginning of the life of Christ by peeling away the sentimentalism that has built up over the last two thousand years around the most well-known of all stories. What unique contribution does each of the four Gospels make to our celebration of Christmas? The authors help us to see this well-known narrative afresh by answering the question, "What do these stories mean?" in the context of both the first century and the twenty-first century. They show that the Christmas story is far richer and more challenging than people imagine. If you can get the book in advance, read the first chapter prior to December 2.

*O come Desire of nations, bind in one the hearts of all mankind.
Bid thou our sad divisions cease,
And be thyself our King of Peace.*

At the end of each verse of this long hymn, a joyful chorus confidently proclaims fulfillment: "Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel." Longing and rejoicing meet.

Past, present, and future are brought together in Advent. It is a season of expectant anticipation, of anticipatory joy. It is also a season of repentant preparation for a future that is yet to come.

May you find comfort and joy this Advent and Christmas.
Blessings,
Eric

Faith and Finance

"Most people live their lives by an eight day week.

They have Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Someday. Many people plan to do noble things – like adequately support the church – on the Someday. Good stewards know the truth. The fact is the Someday is not a day in the week, and Someday never comes."

[Stewardship, October 2005]

First Fruits – 2019 Stewardship Campaign

What if our financial life is a spiritual matter? What if we viewed regular giving in the form of a financial pledge as a spiritual discipline? What if our giving is an important way to put God first in our lives? We believe a financial pledge to the church is a means of spiritual growth.

Join us in this season of gratitude by making your 2019 Stewardship Pledge this month. Read the materials, have a conversation about what God has made possible in your lives, and make a commitment to give of your First Fruits this year. You can submit a pledge card via mail or pledge and/or pay online by going to www.godsacre.org/give.

If you have questions or would like to speak with someone about this year's stewardship campaign, please don't hesitate to contact Peg Davidson at peghome@optonline.net or (203) 249-1070 or Laura Doscher at lauradepersis@gmail.com or (203) 273-3465.

Year-End Giving

And don't forget to think about the church as you consider your year-end giving! These additional gifts help to make care, support and transformative experiences possible for our congregation and beyond!

The Joy of Flowers

Christmas comes alive each year in the Meeting House with a beautiful floral display organized by the Flower Ministry Team. The congregation is invited to make contributions to create a living tribute to our love of the season, our families, and friends. Contributions and bulletin listings should be sent to Debbie Chapman in the church office by end of day on Tuesday, December 11. The flowers will be on display beginning on the third Sunday of Advent, December 16.

Christmas Flower Delivery

Deacons and members of the Pastoral Ministry Team deliver the flowers on Christmas Day or the day after. Extra help is needed to make all the deliveries, if you can help please contact Debbie Chapman, debbie@godsacre.org, by Tuesday, December 18. Debbie will have the list of recipients and it's possible that someone may live very close to you!

Stay Tuned

Planning for the End of Life, Part II: Program for Procrastinators

Those of you who participated in Part I may not yet have filled out your Arrangements at Time of Death for the church. We will help you do that! Part II will be held on Sunday, January 27 from 11:30am-1:30pm in the Chapel. For information, please contact Debbie at the church office, Debbie@godsacre.org.

Youth Ministries Update

The season of Advent give us time to pause and reflect on the life Christ intends for us to live; a life serving our fellow brothers and sisters. Join us for various service projects and Christmas Worship services this month!

Salvation Army Bell Ringing

Guppies, JYG, and MSYG are taking turns bell ringing for the Salvation Army outside of Dunkin Donuts this month. Our fish will be ringing and singing this month to raise money that will help defray heat costs for neighbors this winter. If you see them in town say hello and support their mission!

YG Teambuilding

The Covenant Event for YG this month is Teambuilding on December 2, from 1:00-3:30pm!

Every YG fish who is planning on traveling on the Mission Trip this year is expected to attend. Make sure you come for this great opportunity to work on your problem solving skills with your team. Pick up and drop off will be at the New Canaan Country School, 635 Frogtown Road.

Christmas Worship

The last event before Christmas break for all of Youth Ministries is a Christmas worship service. Each group will celebrate in its own special way as together we walk through Advent towards the birth of Christ.

Church School this December

You're invited to Jesus' Birthday Party!

Please join Children & Family Ministries on Sunday, December 16th as we celebrate the true meaning of Christmas... the birth of Jesus! Join us for cake, punch, & fun!
